PROSECUTORS AND JUDGES FROM ARGENTINA VISIT BRONX DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE DURING NYC CRIMINAL JUSTICE TOUR

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today met with judicial officials from Buenos Aires, Argentina as part of a Global Ties U.S. International Exchange Program.

District Attorney Clark said, "We were pleased to meet with prosecutors, judges and public defenders from Buenos Aires, and exchange information that will contribute to that city's efforts to reform its judicial system.

"The participants asked very pertinent questions about the relationships between prosecutors and judges and the defense. They wanted to know how our jury system works, since they do not use jurors in their city's judicial process."

The participants were given a presentation on cybercrime and learned of the partnerships between the DA's Office and police, and between law enforcement and the community.
