BRONX DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE TO RECEIVE
ROBERT S. TUCKER PRIZE FOR PROSECUTORIAL EXCELLENCE FROM PACE UNIVERSITY'S LAW SCHOOL

The Bronx District Attorney's Office and Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark are being honored with the prestigious Robert S. Tucker Prize for Prosecutorial Excellence from The Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University.

The Tucker Prize is awarded annually to an individual or a group of individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the field of criminal prosecution and who demonstrate excellence in prosecutorial practice. Honorees are selected each year by a jury comprised of former prosecutors and faculty members from the Elisabeth Haub School of Law.

Dean Horace E. Anderson Jr. said, "District Attorney Clark, along with the entire Bronx County District Attorney's Office consistently work towards the end goal of a fair and just criminal justice system for all, with an emphasis on criminal justice reform. The last two plus years of the global pandemic have been challenging for our entire criminal justice system, however, the Bronx County DA's office has not skipped a beat and have stuck to DA Clark's mission – pursuing justice with integrity. It is our privilege to recognize them, many of whom we are proud to call Haub Law alumni."

The award will be presented to District Attorney Clark and members of the Office this evening at a ceremony at the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University.
