FOR LAW SCHOOL AND UNDERGRAD STUDENTS
Internship Program Offers Hands-On Experience to 52 Students
From Across the Nation

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that 52 students have joined the Bronx District Attorney's Office this summer as interns.

District Attorney Clark said, "We are happy to welcome a diverse team of interns to the Bronx District Attorney's Office. They are passionate about learning how the legal system works. This summer's internship program allows students to gain first-hand experience at one of the busiest prosecutorial offices in the nation. I believe they will have a rewarding summer being a part of our service to the people of the Bronx."

This summer's group of interns are 30 students from 19 law schools and 22 students from colleges throughout the nation. Fifteen of the undergraduate students are from the Bronx.

Under a Student Practice Order, law school interns can perform some functions of an attorney in a courtroom. Interns have been assigned to bureaus throughout the Office, including Homicide, Domestic Violence, Trial Bureaus and in the Investigations Division.

The summer internship program runs from June 13, 2022 to August 5, 2022.
