

VISIT US:

DARCEL D. CLARK
DISTRICT ATTORNEY, BRONX COUNTY

198 EAST 161ST STREET
BRONX, N.Y. 10451
(718) 590-2234

101-2025
For Immediate Release
November 12, 2025

BRONX MAN INDICTED FOR SERIES OF BRUTAL ATTACKS ON WOMEN
Defendant Allegedly Beat Woman with Metal Pipe, Attacked Mother in Front of Her Children, and Punched Teens

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that a Bronx man has been indicted for Attempted Murder, Assault and additional charges for violently attacking six females ages 15-60 years old in separate incidents.

District Attorney Clark said, “The defendant allegedly terrorized multiple Bronx neighborhoods. He allegedly attacked females at random, seriously injuring them. In one incident, a victim’s hands were shattered as she shielded her face from the onslaught of a metal pipe.”

District Attorney Clark said the defendant, Jeremiah White, 23, of Randall Avenue was arraigned November 10, 2025, on Attempted Murder in the second degree, Attempted Assault in the first degree, first-degree Assault, three counts of second-degree Assault, two counts of Attempted Assault in the second degree, six counts of third-degree Assault, three counts of fourth-degree Criminal Possession of a Weapon, second-degree Attempted Robbery, third-degree Attempted Robbery, fourth-degree Criminal Mischief and Attempted Petit Larceny before Bronx Supreme Court Justice Kim Parker. The defendant was remanded. He is due back in court on January 7, 2026.

According to the investigation, on October 15, 2025, at approximately 5:00 a.m., near 69 West Tremont Avenue, the defendant allegedly walked up to a 60-year-old woman and punched her in the face. White allegedly picked up a bag and threw its contents at the victim.

About 20 minutes later, near West 176th Street and University Avenue, the defendant allegedly approached a 45-year-old woman and punched her in the face, knocking her to the ground and then repeatedly punched her before beating her with a metal pipe. The victim’s bones in her hand shattered as she used them to cover her face. The woman underwent surgery for her injuries.

DARCEL D. CLARK
DISTRICT ATTORNEY, BRONX COUNTY

198 EAST 161ST STREET
BRONX, N.Y. 10451
(718) 590-2234

At approximately 7:25 a.m., in the vicinity of 1425 Louis Nine Boulevard, the defendant was allegedly seen hitting cars with a metal pipe. He allegedly approached a 15-year-old girl and hit her in the back of the head with the pipe that she required staples to close the wound.

Two hours later, at 10:35 a.m., outside of 1372 Franklin Avenue, the defendant allegedly approached a 54-year-old woman and hit her in the face.

White was arrested for these incidents on October 15, 2025, while on supervised release for two previous crimes included in this indictment.

On October 7, 2025, at approximately 10:35 a.m., near the Grand Concourse and East 149th Street, the defendant allegedly punched a 33-year-old mother who was standing with her children.

On September 12, 2025, at about 4:40 p.m., at the intersection of Southern Boulevard and East 174th Street, aboard a moving Number 2 train, White allegedly punched a 17-year-old teen in the face.

The case is being prosecuted by Major Case Assistant District Attorney Michael Ainis and Assistant District Attorney Amanda Hamilton of Trial Bureau 60 under the supervision of Michael Schordine, Deputy Chief of Trial Bureau 60, and Susanna Imbo, Chief of Trial Bureau 60, and under the overall supervision of James Brennan, Deputy Chief of the Trial Division, and Theresa Gottlieb, Chief of the Trial Division

District Attorney Clark thanked Trial Preparation Assistant Chnaiga Jeudi of Trial Bureau 60, and BXDA Crime Victims Assistance Bureau for their assistance with the case.

District Attorney Clark thanked NYPD Detective Christopher Madden of the 46 Precinct for his work on the investigation.

An indictment is an accusatory instrument and not proof of a defendant's guilt.