Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that nine men and a woman have been indicted on Sex Trafficking of a Child, Promoting Prostitution, Rape and other charges involving a teenage girl in the Bronx.

District Attorney Clark said, "The victim courageously testified in the grand jury to expose her alleged traffickers and rapists. This young girl lived a nightmare of abuse and exploitation that began with a dating app. Please remember that there is help for victims of trafficking; we can get you out of it and protect you."

District Attorney Clark said the defendants are variously charged in a 79-count indictment with, Sex Trafficking of a Child, Second-Degree Promoting Prostitution, Third-Degree Promoting Prostitution, Third-degree Rape, third-degree Criminal Sexual Act, Sexual Misconduct, Use of a Child in a Sexual Performance, Promoting a Sexual Performance by a Child, Endangering the Welfare of a Child. They were arraigned on prior dates before Bronx Supreme Court Justice Laurence Busching. Defendant Joshua Green had a bail hearing today, in which bail was set at $50,000 cash and $100,000 bond. The defendants are due back in court on October 14, 2025.

According to the investigation by the Bronx DA's Human Trafficking Unit and the NYPD's Human Trafficking Squad, in November 2022, defendant Tesean Green, 48, of the Bronx, met the 16-year-old girl on the dating app "Tagged." Within weeks, the defendant allegedly began pimping her out, impersonating her on apps and arranging hundreds of "dates" in New York and Atlantic City, NJ between December 2022 and March 2024. He allegedly plied her with Ecstasy before the encounters and kept all of her earnings.
