BRONX DISTRICT ATTORNEY DARCEL D. CLARK ANNOUNCES HIRING OF 95 ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEYS

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced the appointment of 95 new Assistant District Attorneys to the Bronx District Attorney's Office.

District Attorney Clark said, "I am proud to welcome this group of enthusiastic law school graduates to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office. These 95 new Assistant District Attorneys will work with our dedicated team as they undergo months of training to take part in our mission of Pursuing Justice with Integrity. I thank my Legal Recruitment and Litigation Training staff for their efforts to find and instruct prosecutors who possess the compassion and zeal to serve the people of the Bronx."

The 2025 class is diverse and comes from top law schools in the New York area as well as from law schools across the nation.

Thirty-nine of the incoming ADAs served as summer interns in the Bronx District Attorney's Office.

Today marks the beginning of an eight week intensive training program consisting of lectures on criminal court practice and professional responsibility, observation of court proceedings, workshops and more.

The ADAs who have joined the Office and the law schools from which they graduated are listed below:

Name	School
Andrew Abdelqader	Widener University Commonwealth Law School
Yazan Amireh	New England Law Boston
Viktorija Ansell	New York Law School
