BRONX MAN INDICTED IN UNPROVOKED FATAL STABBING OF BRONX FATHER
Victim Stabbed Multiple Times

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that a Bronx man was indicted on second-degree Murder and first-degree Manslaughter for allegedly fatally stabbing a father of two who was on his way to work.

District Attorney Clark said, “This is a truly horrific case where an innocent man’s life was taken for apparently no reason. The defendant is accused of stabbing the victim repeatedly causing his death. We will get justice for this family.”

District Attorney Clark said the defendant, Sean Jones, 38, the Bronx, was arraigned on Tuesday, February 4, 2026, on second-degree Murder, first-degree Manslaughter, and fourth-degree Criminal Possession of a Weapon by Bronx Supreme Court Justice Pamela Goldsmith. Remand is continued. His next court appearance is March 17, 2026.

According to the investigation, on January 5, 2026, at approximately 1:55 p.m., in the vicinity of Third Avenue between East 157th and East 158th Street, the defendant approached 53-year-old George Ennin and allegedly stabbed him with a knife numerous times in the head, face and torso. The victim was rushed to NYC Health + Hospitals Lincoln where he died. One of the stab wounds was to the victim’s heart which led to his death.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Sara Jacobson, Senior Trial Assistant in the Homicide Bureau, under the supervision of Burim Namani, Deputy Chief of the Homicide Bureau, and Christine Scaccia Chief of the Homicide Bureau, and under the overall supervision of James Brennan, Deputy Chief of the Trial Division and Theresa Gottlieb, Chief of the Trial Division.
