BRONX DA ANNOUNCES 2026 SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM FOR UNDERGRADUATE AND LAW SCHOOL STUDENTS
82 Students Were Accepted into the Program

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that 82 law school and college students will work as interns in the Bronx District Attorney’s Office this summer.

District Attorney Clark said, “The Bronx District Attorney’s Office is thrilled to have some of the brightest young men and women, who are enrolled in higher education, join us this summer as interns. We once again have a qualified, diverse group and we look forward to having them in the office.”

There are 56 students from 36 law schools and 24 undergraduate students from 17 different colleges from around the nation. The intern from the law school furthest from the Bronx attends the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. A student attending New England Law is interning at BXDA for the third time. Sixteen interns are from The Bronx.

Interns will take part in workshops, lectures, hands-on training and educational trips under the leadership of the Legal Recruitment Bureau and the Litigation Training Bureau. A Student Practice Order enables law school interns to perform some functions of an attorney in court. Interns have been assigned to bureaus throughout the Office. The summer internship program runs from June 1 to July 31.
