BRONX MAN SENTENCED TO 17 YEARS IN PRISON FOR KILLING HIS BROTHER
Defendant Smashed Brother's Head with Bowling Ball

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that a Bronx man was sentenced to 17 years in prison after pleading guilty to Manslaughter for bludgeoning his brother to death.

District Attorney Clark said, “This defendant in cold blood killed his own brother as he slept. This one senseless act has torn a family apart. With this guilty plea and sentence, justice has been served.”

District Attorney Clark said the defendant, Jayson Dargan, 43, of Concourse Village East, Bronx, was today sentenced to 17 years in prison and five years post release supervision by Bronx Supreme Court Justice Alvin Yearwood. Dargan pleaded guilty to first-degree Manslaughter on May 8, 2026.

According to the facts brought out at trial, sometime between October 22, 2023 and November 1, 2023, Dargan put a bowling ball inside a black garbage bag and struck the victim, Timothy Dargan, his 44-year-old brother, on the head multiple times, causing his death.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Janene McGraw under the supervision of Burim Namani, Deputy Chief of the Homicide Bureau, Christine Scaccia, Chief of the Homicide Bureau, and under the overall supervision of James
