NYPD INSPECTOR INDICTED ON ATTEMPTED RAPE, SEXUAL ABUSE, ASSAULT AND OFFICIAL MISCONDUCT CHARGES
Defendant Allegedly Assaulted Female Subordinate Inside His Office

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that NYPD Inspector Jeremy Scheublin has been indicted on charges including Attempted Rape, Sexual Abuse, Assault, Official Misconduct, and related offenses for allegedly sexually assaulting a female subordinate inside his office at the 46th Precinct stationhouse.

District Attorney Clark said, “Members of the New York City Police Department are entrusted with tremendous authority and are held to the highest standards of integrity and conduct. The allegations against this defendant are deeply disturbing. He is accused of attempting to rape a female subordinate in his office and then threatening retaliation if she reported the assault. Alleged abuses of power of this nature demand a thorough investigation and vigorous prosecution.”

Inspector Jeremy Scheublin, 46, is charged in a Bronx County Supreme Court indictment with Attempted Rape in the First Degree, Sexual Abuse in the First Degree, Assault in the Second Degree, Assault in the Third Degree, Unlawful Imprisonment in the Second Degree, Forcible Touching, Official Misconduct, and Obstructing Governmental Administration in the Second Degree.

Scheublin was arraigned before Bronx Supreme Court Justice Laurence Busching. Bail was set at $25,000/$75,000/$75,000. He is due back in court October 30, 2026. Scheublin has been suspended without pay by the NYPD.

According to the investigation, on January 1, 2025, Scheublin, while serving as Commanding Officer of the 46th Precinct, allegedly sexually assaulted a female subordinate inside his office at the precinct stationhouse. Investigators allege that the following day, Scheublin approached the victim and stated, “The last person who made accusations against me, it didn’t go well for them,” in an apparent attempt to discourage her from reporting the incident.

This case was investigated by the NYPD’s Internal Affairs Bureau and referred to the Bronx District Attorney’s Office in January 2025

Scheublin joined the NYPD in 2002 and served as Commanding Officer of the 46th Precinct from December 2023 through December 2025.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Michael Naughton of the Public Integrity Bureau under the supervision of Cassie Perez, Supervisor; Sarah Clements, Deputy Chief; Jon Veiga, Chief of the Public Integrity Bureau. Overall supervision is provided by Denise Kodjo, Deputy Chief of the Investigations Division, and Wanda Perez-Maldonado, Chief of the Investigations Division.

District Attorney Clark thanked Trial Preparation Assistant Brianna Rodriguez for her assistance in the case.

District Attorney Clark also thanked the NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau for its assistance with the investigation.

An indictment is an accusation. A defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty in a court of law.
